Geoffrey Serle – The Golden Age
A History of the Colony of Victoria 1851-1861

Contents

Preface ix
Prologue: The Port Phillip District in 1850 1
1 The Early Gold Rushes, 1851-1852 9
2 ‘There’s a Good Time Coming Boys!’ 37
3 ‘Shout for the Diggins, Shout Hurrah!’ 66
4 Diggers and Government, 1852-1853 95
5 The Trials of a Governor 119
6 Sir Charles Hotham and Eureka 115
7 Transition to Responsible Government, 188
8 Economic Redirection 216
9 The First Parliament, 1856-1859 249
10 The Second Parliament, 1859-1861 287
11 The Chinese Minority 320
12 Religion and Education 336
13 The Arts and Sciences 353
14 Conclusion 369

Appendices

I Population 382
II Migration 383
III Unassisted Migration 386
IV Mining Population 388
V Gold Population 390
VI John Dunmore Lang’s Declaration of Independence 392

Abbreviations 394
Notes 395
Bibliography 433
Index 445