

FRANCES M. THIELE – LA TROBE AND THE BUREAUCRATS

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	iii
Conventions	iv
List of Illustrations	v
Preface	vii
Introduction	1
1. Reforming Social Consciousness Charles Joseph La Trobe, Briton in in the 1830s, Liberalism and revolution, Movement for reform, Evangelics, A Missionary network	11
2. Evangelical Credentials Established Beginnings of the Abolition Movement, The Clapham Set, The La Trobe connection, Christian Ignatius La Trobe and the missions, Evangelicism and the La Trobe family, Buxton and the Abolition campaign, Legislative reform	27
3. Confronting Aboriginal Peoples La Trobe and the American Indians, Evangelical attitude to race, The call for protection, New South Wales, Van Diemen’s Land, Urgent need for redress	41
4. Devising a Plan for the Protection of Aboriginal Peoples The Select Committee, The Debate about evidence, The Evidence presented, Colonial policy, Select Committee suggestions, La Trobe’s appointment to Port Phillip	61
5. A Challenging Beginning Governor Gipps, Aggressions, The mood of the colony, The Chief Protector, Van Diemen’s Land people in Port Phillip, A different kind of place, Gipps and La Trobe, The trouble with Robinson, Robinson’s clash with La Trobe, An Inadequate book-keeper, The Chief Protector’s duties, Resorting to Major Lettsom, A loss of confidence, Robinson as Chief Protector	85
6. Unfulfilled Expectations Choosing Protectors, Instructing the Protectors, Gipps and the Protectors	116

7. The Real Circumstances Exposed The Protectorate districts, Itinerating, Reserves, Reserves allocated, Lessons from the Government Mission, Central stations, Clan relationships, Disease, Proximity of settlers, Squatting licenses, Religious instruction, Language	134
8. Enforcing Misguided Philanthropy Role of the Superintendent, Need for control, Keeping track, Unsolicited advice, Interference, London and the Protectors, Application of British law, Parker and Werrenurneen, Use of force, New South Wales legislative scrutiny, Continuing the Protectorate, Increasing interest by local authorities, A New Governor	166
9. La Trobe's Disillusionment A Belief in truth and justice, The Problem of evidence, A New legal code, Christianising role of Aboriginal missions, Experience of the missionaries, New approach to Christianisation, End of the Protectorate proposed, Suggestions from the Colonial Office, La Trobe's verdict on the Protectorate, Dismantling the Protectorate	194
Conclusion	223
Appendices A. Positions in the British Colonial Office; B. Membership of the House of Commons Select Committee on Aborigines (British Settlements); C. Circular letter from T. Spring Rice, Secretary of State for War and the Colonies, to the Governors of His Majesty's Colonial Possessions; D. Extract of a Despatch from Lord Glenelg to Governor Sir R. Bourke, 26 July 1837; E. Lord Glenelg's Instructions to Sir George Gipps, 31 January 1838	230
Bibliography	244
Notes	266